

I am concerned about the petition to stop regulating broadband service. I am very happy with my independent ISP, sonic.net. Their service is outstanding and much better than what I used to receive with SBC. I believe that despite their strong service, the large telephone companies can use their size to gouge the independent ISPs and make it impossible for them to remain in business. Please protect my independent ISP and continue regulation of broadband service.